Romans 10:1-13

Deuteronomy 30:11-19

The Choice Between Life And Death

Deuteronomy 30:11-19

(1) God Is Near Us, And Has Graciously
Made It Simple To Be In Relationship
With Him

Keep them and do them, for that will be your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples, who, when they hear all these statutes, will say, 'Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.' For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as the LORD our God is to us, whenever we call upon him? And what great nation is there, that has statutes and rules so righteous as all this law that I set before you today?

Deuteronomy 4:6-8

(2) Because of Sin, We Make The
Simplicity of Relationship With God
Impossible

The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to work it and keep it. And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, "You may surely eat of every tree of the garden, but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die."

Genesis 2:15-17

“Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.

Matthew 7:13-14

(3) In Jesus, We Find The Forgiveness Of
Our Disobedience And Empowerment
For Obedience

Romans 9:30-10:3

Pelagianism: The theological position that the original sin did not taint human nature and mortal will is still capable of choosing good or evil without special divine aid or assistance.

Romans 10:4-13

Antinomianism: The theological position that Christians are freed from moral obedience because of the grace of God.
